The Volcom Damn Am is a wrap. Little 14 year old upstart David "Spicoli" Loy held off 2006 Tampa Am winner Cody McEntire with some heavy stunts in the finals to impress the judges and take the top prize of assorted skate goods, mobile communications gear, and a new Fender guitar.

Jordan Williams won best trick event with a back-side noseblunt slide around the curved bar of the legendary Hella Hyphy bank. Be on the lookout for him in the future...pure style and skills.
